

LIMEPOINT

LimePoint End User Licence Agreement (EULA)

This agreement applies to software products and services (including without limitation MintPress, DriftGuard and OpsChain), and all associated Documentation, developed, maintained or distributed by LimePoint Pty Ltd ABN 35 618 454 827 an Australian company (LimePoint) (together the Products).

This agreement

This agreement sets out the terms of a contract between you and LimePoint under which you may access and use the Products. By downloading, accessing or using the Products, you agree to be bound by this agreement.

LimePoint may make some or all of the Products available to you free, under a trial licence or subject to the payment of fees. You (or the Licensee) may need to create an account in order to be able to download or access some Products. If you register a company or other entity as a Licensee, you do so as their agent or authorised representative (and bind them to this agreement) and represent and warrant that you have the authority to do so. You (or the Licensee) are responsible for keeping your account information up to date and are responsible for any actions taken using your account details.

If you have subscribed for a free trial of any Products that are subject to fees, you may only use the relevant Product in accordance with the terms made available to you at the commencement of the trial and you may be charged fees if you continue using the Products after the free trial ends or if you do not comply with the terms of the trial.

This agreement is supplemented by, and incorporates, any additional terms made available to you by LimePoint at the time of providing the Products to you (including any order agreed by you (or the Licensee) and LimePoint in writing or any applicable click wrap terms) (the Order) and documents incorporated by reference (including the Documentation and any applicable Acceptable Use Policy). Unless specifically stated otherwise, in the event of an inconsistency between an Order, this agreement and any document incorporated by reference, those documents will be interpreted in that order of precedence.

Updates to these terms

LimePoint may update this EULA at any time. However, unless agreed otherwise in an Order the most recent version of this EULA will apply to any Order, when you download any Product and from the commencement of any Further Term and unless set out below changes in the EULA during any Committed Term will not apply to you.

If LimePoint is providing you Products on a SaaS Basis, LimePoint may change the terms by providing 30 days notice (or immediately if the change is required by law), and if you do not agree to the change you may terminate the relevant Order (provided you do so within 30 days) and LimePoint will refund a pro-rata proportion of any prepaid fees (provided you have given LimePoint notice of your intention to terminate and 10 days to withdraw or defer the change).

If you are using any Products that are not subject to fees or a specific Order, you agree to check the most current EULA annually and the most current version of the EULA will apply to any further developments or use after each anniversary of the date you downloaded the Product.

Unless agreed otherwise in an Order, any Further Term is contingent on LimePoint continuing to make the Products available on the same basis.

3 GRANT OF LICENCE

Subject to payment of any applicable fees, LimePoint grants Licensee and each End User a revocable, non-exclusive and non-transferable licence to:

- (a) except where the Products is provided on a SaaS Basis, install the Products in the locations specified in the Order (or if not specified, on systems under your control) to enable the execution and processing of the Products; and

- (b) use the Products in accordance with this agreement, for the Term (the Licence) for the limited purpose of using the Products for the purposes set out in the applicable Documentation and environments specified in the Order (or if not specified in an Order, your (or the Licensee's) platforms and environments for your (or the Licensee's) own internal business purposes). You have no rights in respect of the Products or Documentation other than as set out in this agreement.

4 PROVISION OF PRODUCTS

LimePoint will:

- (a) provide you with access to the Products for the Term (including, where applicable, the provision of unique usernames and passwords for each End User, or the capability for the Licensee to do so in relation to its End Users);
- (b) ensure that the Products performs substantially in accordance with the Documentation (including any service levels specified in the Documentation); and
- (c) in the event that the Order specifies that LimePoint will provide a hosted solution, host the Products in accordance with the Documentation and, if applicable, within the jurisdiction specified in an Order.

If you are provided any Products on a SaaS Basis, while LimePoint will generally provide prior notice, you acknowledge and agree that LimePoint may update or change the Products at any time.

LimePoint may subcontract delivery of its obligations under this agreement but remains responsible for any act or omission of any of its subcontractors.

LimePoint will provide some third party products together with the Products. Those third party products are provided as is and are subject to the relevant third party terms (refer to the relevant Documentation), and LimePoint makes no warranties or representations (whether express or implied) in relation to such third party products.

Any User Enhancements are licenced subject to this agreement and any additional conditions in the LimePoint Marketplace Rules. Except to the extent set out in the LimePoint Marketplace Rules, LimePoint disclaims all liability in respect of User Enhancements and you use them at your own risk.

5 DOCUMENTATION

LimePoint will provide you with access to the Documentation during the Term. You must not, without LimePoint's prior written consent, make any alteration to the Documentation or provide any Documentation to a person that is not an End User. You may make such copies of the Documentation as are necessary for your use of the Products in accordance with this agreement.

6 MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT

Subject to the Licensee paying any applicable maintenance and support fees, LimePoint will provide:

- (a) patches, updates and new releases for the Products that it makes generally available to licensees of the Products that are entitled to maintenance; and
- (b) so long as you are an End User, you are entitled to access LimePoint's support services as set out in the Documentation.

Despite the above, LimePoint is not required to make a new release that is a substantial revision of the Products or any additional functionality available to End Users and may require the payment of additional fees before doing so.

7 FEES

Unless specified otherwise in the Order, the Licensee must pay LimePoint the licence fees (if any):

- (a) monthly in advance in the case of Products provided on a SaaS Basis by allowing LimePoint to charge a credit card provided by the Licensee or direct debit an account under a direct debit authority provided by the Licensee in the manner determined by LimePoint from time to time; or

- (b) in all other cases annually in advance, and any additional fees set out in the Order or this agreement, without deduction, within 30 days of receipt of an invoice.

In the event that the Licensee requests an increase in any licence limits set out in the Order for the balance of the then current Term (or LimePoint detects that any licence limits have been exceeded), LimePoint will issue an invoice to the Licensee for the additional licences required. The licence fees applicable to any additional licences will be set out in the Order or, if the fees are not set out in the Order, LimePoint's then current fees for the licences shall apply.

Unless otherwise agreed the licence fees are fixed for the Initial Term of this agreement and will then be LimePoint's then current licence fee for the Products for any Further Term. LimePoint agrees to provide the Licensee with notice of the licence fees applicable to any Further Term at least 45 days (or 10 days in the case of a monthly subscription on a SaaS Basis) prior to the expiry of the then current term. If LimePoint does not notify you, the licence fee for the Further Term will be the same as the licence fee for the then current term increased by an amount reasonably determined by LimePoint to reflect any changes in the Australian Consumer Price Index (Weighted Average Eight Capital Cities) during that term.

If the Licensee disputes the whole, or any part of, an invoice, the Licensee will pay the undisputed portion on the due date. If it is subsequently resolved that the remainder is payable, the Licensee will pay that amount together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum (or if lower, the highest amount permitted by law) calculated from the due date until the payment is made (capitalising monthly).

Without limiting any other rights it may have, LimePoint may suspend any licences granted under this agreement by written notice to Licensee or, to the extent LimePoint is able to, limit access of any End User to the Products until the Licensee has paid any fees due.

8 TAXES

Except as otherwise expressly stated in the Order, all fees payable under this agreement shall be exclusive of Tax, and you will pay any Tax at the same time as any related payments under clause 7 (or otherwise on demand by LimePoint). In the event that you are required to withhold part of a payment to LimePoint in respect of any applicable Taxes, you agree to gross up the payment to LimePoint to the extent required to ensure that LimePoint receives the originally intended payment in full.

Words and phrases defined in the GST Law have the same meaning in this clause. If GST is payable on a Taxable Supply made in connection with this agreement, the party providing the Consideration for that Taxable Supply must also pay the GST Amount as additional Consideration. This clause does not apply to the extent that the Consideration for the Taxable Supply is expressly agreed to be GST inclusive. No payment of any amount pursuant to this agreement is required until the supplier has provided a Tax Invoice or Adjustment Note as the case may be to the recipient. Any reference in the calculation of Consideration or of any indemnity, reimbursement or similar amount to a cost, expense or other liability incurred by a party, must exclude the amount of any Input Tax Credit entitlement of that party in relation to the relevant cost, expense or other liability.

9 RESELLERS

- (a) LimePoint has arrangements with authorised resellers who facilitate the sale and implementation of the Products (Resellers). Resellers have no capacity to make any representations, give any warranties on behalf of, or otherwise bind or act on behalf of, LimePoint. If a Reseller gives opinions, representations or warranties in respect of the Products, they do so in their own capacity. LimePoint will only be bound by the Documentation provided by LimePoint in respect of the Products.
- (b) LimePoint will only be bound to the extent LimePoint has expressly confirmed a representation, warranty or undertaking in an Order. Any Order is a contract between LimePoint and Licensee and unless otherwise agreed by LimePoint in writing a Reseller is not a representative of LimePoint.
- (c) Licensee will only be deemed to have paid any amount to LimePoint under this agreement via a Reseller to the extent the Reseller pays that amount to LimePoint. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that LimePoint may pay Resellers commissions in relation to any Products.

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless LimePoint and its Related Parties and each of their officers, employees and subcontractors, from any losses, costs, expenses or claims to the extent that they are caused, or contributed to, by a breach of this agreement by you and, in the case of the Licensee, any End User.

12 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

You acknowledge that all Intellectual Property Rights in the Products are retained by LimePoint. You acknowledge that nothing in this agreement transfers or assigns to you any of LimePoint's Intellectual Property Rights and your right to use and access LimePoint's Intellectual Property Rights are limited to the operation and the use of the Products in accordance with this agreement. You agree that your use of such Intellectual Property Rights and any goodwill established thereby shall inure to the exclusive benefit of LimePoint.

Without prejudice to your obligations under clause 10, you agree that any derivatives, developments, enhancements or modifications of the Products (including without limitation any User Enhancements or any developments suggested or contributed to by you, all files containing any part of the Products created during the implementation and use of the Products) are the property of LimePoint and you assign any present or future Intellectual Property Rights that you might have in relation to those developments to LimePoint and waive any Moral Rights that you may have in relation to those developments (or to the extent those rights cannot be waived, you consent to LimePoint's use of the developments in any manner that may otherwise infringe any Moral Rights you have in relation to those developments).

Despite the above LimePoint wishes to encourage the use and development of its Products and LimePoint:

- (a) grants you a perpetual licence to use any User Enhancements that you develop (and subject to you continuing to pay any applicable fees (if any) for the Products that the User Enhancements were derived from or that are necessary to use those User Enhancements); and

- (a) LimePoint will:
 - (i) defend or, at its option, settle any demand, claim, action, suit or proceeding brought against Licensee or any End User (the "Indemnified Parties") alleging that any part of the Products (the "Infringing Items") infringes a patent registered in Australia, or any copyright, trade secret or other registered third party Intellectual Property (IP Claim); and
 - (ii) pay any damages finally awarded against the Indemnified Party or payable by the Indemnified Party under a settlement approved by LimePoint.
- (b) LimePoint may (at its option) modify or replace any Infringing Items to ensure they are no longer "Infringing Items" (so long as those items have substantially the same functionality) or procure the rights for the Indemnified Parties to use the Infringing Items. If either of those options are not commercially viable for LimePoint, then if requested by LimePoint, the Licensee must cease using and return the Infringing Items to LimePoint and LimePoint will repay any relevant fees referable to the unexpired Term of the Order.
- (c) The indemnity in clause 13(a) will not apply to the extent:

 - (iii) the Indemnified Party does not provide LimePoint with control of any defence or settlement negotiations;
 - (iv) the IP Claim is caused or contributed to by the use of the Products in breach of this agreement, in a manner not contemplated in the Documentation or in combination with another product or software;
 - (v) to any modification of the Products by a party other than LimePoint;

LimePoint acknowledges that Client Data remains the property of the Licensee. Where LimePoint is providing the Products on a SaaS Basis, LimePoint will provide you with the ability to upload, access and download your Client Data, and will manage your Client Data, in substantially the manner set out in the Documentation.

While LimePoint will use commercially reasonable endeavours to protect Client Data in its possession, LimePoint cannot guarantee that any such measures cannot be circumvented and that Client Data will never be accessed by third parties (particularly where it is transmitted over networks not controlled by LimePoint). To the extent permitted by law LimePoint is not liable to you for any unauthorised access to your Client Data (other than by any LimePoint personnel) nor for any loss or corruption of your Client Data or the costs of recreating or repairing your Client Data. You should make regular backup copies of your Client Data.

Where LimePoint has agreed to provide a hosted solution, for a period of 30 days after expiry of the Term, you (or an End User on behalf of all End Users of a Licensee) will have limited access to the Products to download your Client Data. After that time LimePoint may permanently delete your Client Data. However if LimePoint has provided the Products to you on a SaaS Basis, your access to the Products will cease immediately after termination or expiry and you will have to reinstate your subscription within 45 days (with effect from the termination or expiry) in order to access your Client Data (All Client Data is automatically deleted 45 days after termination or expiry).

LimePoint disclaims, and you release LimePoint from, all liability for suspending access to, or deleting, Client Data in accordance with this agreement or to the extent LimePoint is required by law to do so.

LimePoint may charge its standard hourly rates for any assistance you require to extract your Client Data (except where you have terminated this agreement due to a default by LimePoint) or if it is compelled by law to provide copies of your data or evidence regarding your use of the Products to a third party regarding any proceedings or investigations to which you are a party or subject to.

19 CONFIDENTIALITY

A party will not, without the prior written approval of the other party, disclose the other party's Confidential Information. A party will not be in breach of this clause in circumstances where it is legally compelled (but not by contract) to disclose the other party's Confidential Information.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this clause, a party may disclose the terms of this agreement (other than Confidential Information of a technical nature and Client Data) to its employees, related companies, solicitors, auditors, insurers and accountants provided that they give an undertaking to abide by the terms of confidentiality imposed on the parties by this agreement.

Each party acknowledges that damages alone are unlikely to be an adequate remedy in respect of any breach of that party's obligations under this clause. Accordingly, in addition to other remedies that may be available, a Discloser may seek urgent interlocutory relief to protect its rights and interest in its Confidential Information against any actual or potential breach of this clause by the Recipient, without proof of actual damages, in addition to any other remedy to which the Discloser would be entitled.

Unless you as us not to, you agree that LimePoint may make reasonable reference to you as a customer in its marketing materials.

20 PRIVACY

LimePoint agrees to treat any personal information in accordance with its privacy policy available at <https://www.limepoint.com/privacy>.
